

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Colorado boasts a multitude of natural wonders, including our Rocky Mountains, the Colorado River, the Great Sand Dunes, and the many state parks throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, the abundance of opportunities to swim, fish, hike, bike, ski, run, kayak, and explore Colorado presents visitors and residents the chance to enjoy the environment and experience our vast outdoors; and

WHEREAS, those who take advantage of the opportunities afforded them in the outdoors generally live longer, healthier, fuller lives than those who do not; and

WHEREAS, Colorado receives over 300 days of sunlight, making almost any day a perfect day to be outdoors; and

WHEREAS, the State of Colorado encourages its citizens and visitors to take advantage of the beauty and cleanliness of our state by participating in outdoor activities and leading healthier, fuller lives;

Therefore, I, John Hickenlooper, Governor of the State of Colorado, do hereby proclaim June 2011,

GREAT OUTDOORS MONTH

in the State of Colorado.

GIVEN under my hand and the Executive Seal of the State of Colorado, this fourth day of April, 2011
